2011 BURNSIDE “BUSINESS OF THE YEAR” AWARD

Farnell Packaging Limited was recognized by the Burnside Industrial Park community by receiving the Burnside News “Business of the Year” Award.

Mayor Peter Kelly presented the award to Amy Farnell, President, accompanied by Shane Sutherland, Senior Customer Service Representative. Amy thanked everyone (Burnside News as lead Sponsor) for their support and acknowledged her late husband, Don Farnell, would have truly appreciated receiving recognition from the local business community.

The Award is based on a combination of ballots and on-line voting determining the winner(s). The Burnside News (www.burnsidenews.com) gathers and counts the votes and announces the finalists in the various categories. This year's gala event was held at the Ramada Inn Hotel where industry leaders gathered during a luncheon to hear the winner(s) announced.

Thanks again to the Burnside News and everyone involved organizing and supporting this year's stand-out business event. Congratulations to all the finalists with special recognition to fellow award recipients – well done!
